Dear Friends,

I am groaning every time a Christmas advert comes on television at the moment. It all seems too soon for the jolly holly glitzy silly gorgeous season of the year. Certainly too soon to be wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year but because this issues is for December and January too that's just what I will have to do.

In fact, by the time I am writing to you again, we will be on the edge of Candlemas and the end of this cycle of church time will be over. These two months form an 'Incarnation season' a time to consider and celebrate the most outrageous claim of Christianity, that God loved the world and us people so much that he was willing to live and die as one of us. God who could have never known hunger, cold or pain, never wept at the death of a friend or drank a wedding party dry chose to do this in Jesus Christ. He chose to be a baby and a child, poor, homeless, a refugee, a condemned criminal.

We cover this up with all the toys and trinkets, customs and games, food and drink of this midwinter festival but it is the challenge each year. If God loves our world so much, how can we act as if the smallest parts of life, each person we meet, even our own bodies are not holy, cannot be a revelation of God. Can we see this world with the love, compassion and forgiveness that God sees it with, or do we just snipe and condemn?

Celebration is a much more fitting way of worshipping the God who chooses to be incarnate than mourning. So I shall just have to stop being curmudgeonly about Christmas coming too soon and wish you all the best and brightest of celebrations and a peaceful and joyous 2017,

Andrew and Rhiannon
St Ishmaels Church News

The repairs to the Church roof are progressing quite well and we have now started on the repairs to the Bell-cote. Unfortunately the condition of the 1789 Bell and Bellstock is much worse that anticipated.

The conservation and repairs required are going to be considerably greater than budgeted. We need to raise £2500 very quickly to get this works done while the scaffolding is still in place.

Our Carol Party, which we are holding in the Sports Club this year, will be the start of a crash programme to raise the money. If you are able, please give generously to this appeal so that we may retain 'Our Peal'!

All Change in Church?

It came as a bit of a surprise when a letter landed on every vicar’s doorstep, telling us that the Bishops of the Church in Wales had decided to make a big change to the church rules about who can receive communion and when.

It used to be the case that the usual rule was that you could only take communion in church if you had been confirmed or if you belonged to another denomination and would usually take communion in your own home church. There were exceptions- if you wanted to be confirmed but a bishop was not available to do it, you could have the bread and wine and children, who were very regular attenders could have communion from about the age of seven. In short, a mess practically and theologically too. Is communion about Jesus’ great love in giving himself for us even though we don’t deserve it or is it about being somehow worthy?

So from the beginning of December this year Anglican churches in Wales can start bringing in the new policy- all those who have been baptized regardless of age are welcome to receive. By December next year the Bishops want us to have implemented it. They stress the new policy is designed to show God’s welcome and love.

There are practical issues. It is illegal and harmful to give alcohol to very small children, so they will get the bread. Knowing which children have and have not been baptized could also be difficult, just as it is hard to judge with adults, but these issues can be sorted out with a bit of thought and care.

But what happens to confirmation? Confirmation was always more than just first communion. In taking on the promises made for you, Christians commit themselves to lives of faith, love and service. It is the balance to God offering the great gift of salvation. We have to accept and use the gift God gives us.

The new policy is designed to make clear what we have always said. God’s gift comes first, our response comes second.

MOTHERS’ UNION.
A very good evening spent with Diana Hoare was the prize for those of us who braved going out on an awful night last month! It was a joy to see the different mediums Diana works in from calligraphy through stone masonry to water colouring, felting and embroidery - a very talented lady whose life has followed a very unusual path to her final destination as a Vicar! It was a most interesting evening well worth the effort. December brings with it the usual festive fare, a Christmas lunch, carols and fun, whilst January brings the monotony of an AGM much enhanced by a bring and share supper, chat and company. So if you feel like popping in to see how we operate please do. We meet on the second Tuesday of the month in Marloes Village Hall at 7.30pm. Look forward to seeing you there!

For any more information contact Harriet 636668, or Bridget 636274.

We wish members, their families and all readers of Peninsula Papers a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Dale Community Council – meeting on 7th November, 2016 - among items discussed at this meeting:

Parking issues – following the congestion experienced over the August weekends / Bank Holiday (as well as the congestion experienced over the May Bank Holiday weekend), the Community Council has met the County Council Car Parks Officer to discuss possible solutions. The Car Parks Officer has declined to erect a height barrier to prevent access to the car park for high / large vehicles – despite provisions in their lease requiring them to do so. The County Council proposes to erect improved signage and to seek additional / seasonal overspill space for the parking of trailers and large vehicles. Meanwhile, they have asked that anyone organising an event during the busy times of year (e.g. Bank Holidays; e.g. August) should take steps to ensure that there is adequate provision for parking in and around the village, sufficient to cope with additional traffic generated by their event. The Community Council is pressing the County Council and their landlords for a more satisfactory solution and better supervision and management of the car park before the onset of the 2017 tourism season.

Flood gate issues – the Community Council has noted that the flood gates which were supplied and fitted by Natural Resources Wales (NRW) have become very stiff and that the hinges seem to have become corroded. The problem has been reported to NRW who have attended and made a temporary repair. Meanwhile NRW are seeking guidance from the manufacturers so that a permanent solution can be put in place. It was confirmed that the closing / opening of the gates is the responsibility of the Community Council – the key holders are Community Councillors Garnish, Jones, Morgan, Truelove and the Deputy Clerk (Mr Nockels).

Benches on the sea front – it was noted that the Community Council continues to receive requests for permission to erect memorial benches on the sea front despite the fact that there is insufficient space to accommodate the demand. The Community Council is considering alternative ways in which the demand can be met, the criteria by which the limited space can be allocated and possible alternative locations that might fulfil the requirements.

Village maintenance issues – it was noted that South Street was flooded after the heavy rain in the evening of 5th November, 2016 and the Community Council has drawn this to the attention of the County Council, requesting that the drains and gullies should be jetted / cleared before the heavy winter rain sets in.

Dale Fort – students – newspaper reports of the inquest into the recent tragedy involving a student from Dale Fort were noted and the Clerk has been asked to contact the managers of the Fort to request that they make more effective arrangements to control the behaviour of students. There have been a number of reports of rowdy late night revelry (which have little or no connection with local businesses) which is unwelcome to residents and tourists alike.

Planning – the Community Council has received notice of an application for planning permission for 97, Blue Anchor Way – NP/16/0568/FUL – and has responded that they have no objection to the proposed development.

The next meetings of Dale Community Council is scheduled to take place at the Jubilee Suite, Dale on 12th December, 2016 and 16th January, 2017 starting at 1900hrs. Residents are encouraged to attend and, with the permission of the Chairman may address the meeting.
Marloes and St Brides

Highway Matters - Members were pleased to note that a sign reference the Marloes toilets had been erected, and also road markings at Martins Haven. Other issues will be referred to County Cllr. Owens to ask for action, including the road surface in the Glebe Lane, and flooding at Mullock Bridge junction. Residents are asked to photograph flooding incidents if possible, to enable the Council to follow up more easily with County Council staff.

Planning Matters: - NP/16/0425/FUL – Former Youth Hostel Buildings – Cllr. Jessop attended the National Park meeting to request that the consent for the cafe prohibited the retail of goods as a shop. This was agreed by the Committee. Issues relating to disability access will be considered at a visit by the Access Officer with Cllr. Owens and a representative from the Community Council present. NP/16/0649/CLE – Appeal Hearing on the 22nd November reference the Certificate of Lawful Use for camping near Slate Mill Lodge will be attended by a Councillor and the Clerk. NP/12/0179 – Development of Barn, Square Farm, Marloes – The Council has been advised that a further planning application may be submitted in relation to the work on the Barn. NP/16/0594/FUL – Conversion of buildings etc. at Crabhall – Members noted that this was the second application for this site. It was agreed that as last time the Clerk write with relation to the vehicular access to the proposed development.

Rubbish Collections – Please note that Collection details are listed on the back page of Peninsula Papers, and are also available by a link on the marloes.org.uk website. Owners/Letting Agents are asked to ensure that holiday visitors to properties in Marloes/St. Brides know what arrangements are in place for disposal of rubbish.

Financial Matters – The meeting approved the following payments:- St. Brides & St. Peter’s Churchyards - £40 each; Peninsula Papers - £50; Paul Sartori - £10; Samaritans - £20 & Royal British Legion - £20. Donation to the Village Hall will be approved next month.

Payment to Pembrokeshire County Council of £30 towards a joint advert was approved – noted the Council would otherwise have had to fund their own advert reference amendments to the Code of Conduct – advert issued in the Western Telegraph on the 9th November.

Burial Ground – The meeting received a letter from Mr. James Allen, Superintendent and Registrar, Pembrokeshire County Council. The letter advised:- “In regards to your request for a new burial ground, regrettably, as the burial ground in St. Peter’s Church, falls under the jurisdiction of the Church in Wales, as a Local Authority, Pembrokeshire County Council have no Statutory Duty or Responsibility implied on them to provide for the continuation of future burial space to the Parishioners of St. Peter’s Church, Marloes, therefore we are unable to proceed with your request.

With this in mind, I would advise you that Pembrokeshire County Council currently owns and manages eleven cemeteries, with the nearest one to St. Peter’s Church being approximately 3 miles away in the village of St. Ishmaels.

All future requests for burial in either St. Ishmaels or one of our other ten cemeteries will be accommodated, and all such requests can be made via a local Funeral Director, or by contacting the Parc Qwyn Office”.

The Community Council has been advised by the Archdeacon, Dennis White that the Churchyard at St. Peter’s has provided burial for all residents over the years not only parishioners. Second burials can still be continued on next page undertaken, as can interment of ashes in existing graves or in a separate plot. The Clerk was asked to include this in Peninsula Papers for information. The letter received will also be reported to the Parochial Church Council meeting to be held in January 2017.

Gaylane Terrace – Cllr. Owens to be told that some residents are experiencing parking problems along the Terrace. This problem may be exacerbated by the County Council undertaking major works on the two vacant Airey houses.

Next Meetings – The next meeting of the Council will be held on Monday 5th December not the 12th, and the January meeting is scheduled to be held on the 9th January - both starting at 7.30pm at Marloes Village Hall. Local electors of Marloes & St. Brides are welcome to attend, and may address the meetings at the invitation of the Chairman.

DALE W.I.

I will never look at a cabbage in the same way again! Pamela Hunt, our November speaker, had worked for a number of years as a sound engineer on The Archers and then moved on into TV. Her descriptions and explanations of the different and often extraordinary objects used to create the sound effects were fascinating—hence the cabbage. The uses for Marigold gloves are another area I will leave to your imagination. The correct use for marigolds and cabbages will remain known only to those of us who were there! For the rest of you I suspect imagination does not even come close. Pamela also shared tales of her travels with an Austin 7 ‘Miss Daisy’, a car we have seen in the Dale area, but one we shall recognise properly in the future. Earlier last month we held our AGM and are delighted to welcome our new President, Mary Lewis, who will guide us all through 2017 with her usual verve and aplomb! We look forward later this month to our Christmas party with its usual mix of festive fun, and then on to our new programme starting on Tuesday 3rd January 2017 in The Jubilee Suite, Coronation Hall at 7.30pm.

Dale WI wish all readers of Peninsula Papers a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Louise Barker gave us a fascinating and technical insight into the work the Royal Commission of Ancient and Historic Monuments of Wales are undertaking as they revisit the archaeology of Skomer. Louise paid tribute to those who had gone before and to what they had achieved. It was fascinating how accurate they were when put against the findings uncovered from the modern techniques now available which allow a much clearer and more detailed picture to emerge of what is still preserved of the past history of the island. The work carried out since 2014 has already produced evidence which pushes the known dates of occupation back significantly. The type and construction of the buildings leave tantalising questions many of which will never be answered, educated guesses the best alternative!

This brings the 2016 programme to an end. We look forward now to starting up again in January with an exhibition to launch the new Marloes Village Leaflet. The exhibition will run over a weekend and culminate with the 'official' launch with members of PLANED who were instrumental in bringing about the printing of the leaflet. To accompany the launch we hope we will also have a brief overview of the archaeology uncovered in the preparation of the land prior to the building of the new houses in Marloes. If any of you have any photos, newspaper cuttings, artefacts you think might be of interest to us for this exhibition please do let us know. We look forward to seeing many of you there as you come to renew your membership at the same time! Some of you could be coming to join for the first time!

We, at Coastlands Local History Group, wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New year.

Haverfordwest Operatic Society played to a full house at Coronation Hall, Dale for the penultimate show in this year's Autumn Tour. Their Double Bill production featured music associated with William Shakespeare in this his 400th Anniversary Year and an Offenbach one act comic operetta.

‘Brush Up Your Shakespeare’ featured selections from Broadway Musicals based on his plays, including ‘Kiss Me Kate’, ‘The Boys from Syracuse’ and ‘West Side Story’. This was augmented by songs with words by him including ‘The Chorus of Scottish Refugees’ from Verdi’s Macbeth.

Offenbach’s ‘Monsieur Colli-Flahr’s ‘At Home’. This is an English translation originally made for the Welsh National Opera and freely adapted with additional lyrics by Ifor Phillips and music from La Vie Parisienne, La Belle Helene and Les Braconniers. This very witty and comic piece was exceptionally well received by the enthusiastic audience.

The next HOS production will be Gilbert & Sullivan’s ‘HMS Pinafore’ at the Torch Theatre on 26th, 27th & 28th April 2017.

HOS will also be continuing their support of Swansea City Opera by providing Chorus Members for SCO’s production of Delibes’ ‘Lakme’ which will be at the Torch Theatre on 27th May 2017.

Many thanks to the Hall Committee, the Hall Technical Team and to all those who helped and participated in the production. It really was a ‘Class Act!’.

St. Ishmaels Memorial Hall

Coffee Morning

£383.30 was raised at the Coffee Morning held at the Hall on Saturday 19th November. Thank you to all who helped prepare for this event; for the contributions to the various stalls – including lots of apples and three bags of logs! Thank you to Vera Edwards who organised her own raffle with the support of Kenny and Sandra Gainfort. Thank you to those who turned up on the morning to support this event - few in number but very generous.

Roll of Honour – Details of the men lost in 1916 were on display. These men and those others who died in the 1914/18 War and the Second World War were remembered at the special service on the 13th November. Mr. Anthony Williams, Skerryback Farm, St. Ishmaels in conjunction with others from the Milford Haven British Legion will be preparing a book over the next two years detailing both the men lost in the 1st World War, and also those that served in that War. Please consider if you can prepare some details/pictures/stories of your family member that can be passed on to Mr. Williams.

Future of the Memorial Hall

Early in the New Year 2017 there will be a joint meeting of the Community Council with the four Trustees of the Memorial Hall to consider if there is a future for the Hall. It is envisaged that after that meeting a Community meeting would be called so that members of the Community have their opportunity to comment on any proposals.

The Pembrokeshire Dangler

I am sitting here writing this on November 6th as yet another cold heavy shower batters the windows on the northern side of the house. When the showers miss us, we can smugly sit in the conservatory in the sunshine and watch the impressive huge clouds pass north-to-south just offshore. We are in the midst of a Pembrokeshire Dangler – you may have seen “Derek the Weather” explaining this on television but in case you haven’t here goes: (information from Wikipedia and www.uk.sci.weather)

“The Pembrokeshire Dangler is a convergence zone which forms a line of continuous showers aligned north-south across the Irish sea; it often occurs during late autumn and winter, since the environmental factors required for its formation such as warm sea temperatures and cold Arctic air aloft are usually only met at this time of year.”

“It is a line of showery precipitation which forms in a NNW to NNE airflow, typically from north of Pembrokeshire to Cornwall. This often results in frequent showers, or even more persistent rain, in quite a narrow band. It is by no means an unusual phenomenon, occurring several times a year, particularly in autumn and winter. The long fetch across ‘warm’ water from the Irish Sea to Cornwall, provides the right conditions for showers to form. The shape of the Pembrokeshire Peninsula has the effect of concentrating this unstable northerly flow, in the same way as an obstruction in a stream would concentrate the flow around it.”

You can see a the convergence zone on the Met Office pressure chart for Nov 6th - it is the dark line with the small “branches” on the side.

And you can see the results on the rainfall radar – this long patch of showers has not moved for at least 24 hours, except to move slightly inland.

The “Dangler” can be very inconvenient for us, especially when it occurs on Bonfire Night as it did this year. However it can be more serious for Cornwall. On 25 November 2005 the Pembrokeshire Dangler gave nearly 8 inches of snow across Bodmin Moor and across parts of northwest Devon, causing considerable disruption.

There is a really good video explanation of all this by Liam Dutton on YouTube - just search for Pembrokeshire Dangler. It has only just been posted so Liam was obviously inspired by the same events as I was!
